Hello EMAS Families,

We have had a fantastic start to new the school year. We are so grateful for the refreshing weather and overall health of EMAS! We appreciate all your efforts to keep our school clean and healthy.

Please continue to monitor your children for symptoms such as coughing, runny nose, fever, body aches, loss of appetite, and sore throat.

We welcome any and all communication regarding family changes, illnesses, absences, questions, concerns via email.

As always, we strive to provide the very best for our families here at EMAS.
