Dear ABMS Families

Dear Parents,

'Tis the season to be jolly! We are looking forward to this season's holidays with joy and hope! It has been quite a year and we are ready for what the New Year may bring.

Please continue to remain healthy and safe during these cold weeks and notify us of any illnesses or symptoms. It is essential that sick children remain at home to help keep ABMS safe!

We are so grateful to our families for all their support and love. We are so blessed to work with your children and watch them thrive at ABMS.

As always, we strive for the best for our families and students. Have a wonderful Holiday season.
