NOTE FROM THE DIRECTORS:

'Tis the season to be jolly! We are looking forward to this season's holidays with joy and hope! It has been quite a year, and we are ready for what the New Year may bring.

Please continue to remain healthy and safe during these cold weeks, and notify us of any illnesses or symptoms. It is essential that sick children remain at home, to help keep EMAS healthy!

We are so grateful to our families for all your support and love. We are so blessed to work with your children and watch them thrive at EMAS.

As always, we strive for the best for our families and students at EMAS. Have a wonderful holiday season!
